

Please continue to help the citizens of Indiana keep our homes to ourselves, please keep big business banking off of our phone lines and out of our evening dinner conversations. Even if we do have, “established business relationships” with these companies, the option to pick up the phone and call them should be our own, just as it was when we established the service in the first place.